

Have you ever said/heard to your children/from your parents about below content?

YES

My parents want me to put more effort in trying to make my life better.

NO

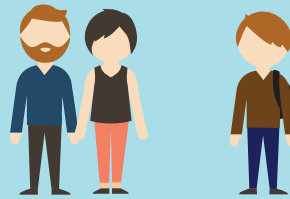

Have you ever said/heard to your children/from your parents about below content?

YES

My perants don't understand why I have always felt that I fell behind in school by a couple of years compared to the classmates.

NO

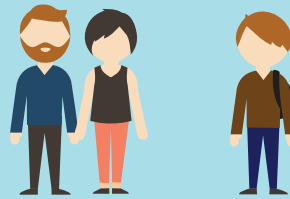

Have you ever said/heard to your children/from your parents about below content?

YES

I couldn't explain my thoughts accurately to other people.
But my mother think my English is like Canadian!

NO

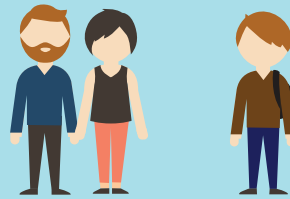

Have you ever said/heard to your children/from your parents about below content?

YES

I have forgotten how much of a challenge it is to move to a different country where I don't even speak the language.

NO

Have you ever said/heard to your children/from your parents about below content?

Lack of Conversation Makes a Distance Between Parents and Children